Troop 34 is planning the following activity:

What: Summer Camp at Napowan Adventure Base, Wild Rose, Wisconsin

When: Sunday July 1 through Saturday July 7, 2007

Where: Camp Napowan, Wild Rose, Wisconsin

We will meet at 7:30 am and leave at 8:00 am from Thomas Middle School and will return to Thomas Middle School by mid-afternoon on Saturday.

The camping fee is: $225 Early Bird Fee (if paid by March 15), $250.00 per person (if paid by April 19th), the last minute fee is $280. Refer to camp information packet for recommendations on spending money for the week depending on planned activities. We will stop for fast food lunch on the way up and again on the way home. An additional fee will be required for gas; we will let the scouts know the amount in May.

If you want to contact your son while he is away, call (920)622-3680 (This is really for EMERGENCIES ONLY).

Mail may be sent to _____ →

If you want a phone call from your son during the week, ask an adult volunteer to coordinate a call from the pay phone.

Troop 34 week at Napowan – July 1 through July 7

Key details for your scout:

Required paperwork:

Class 2 Medical form – Check website for exact form – this requires a doctor physical within the last three years, and a doctor's signature on the form. NOTE: Adults over 40 must have a Class 3 Medical form, which requires a physical within the last 12 months.

Driver and Adult Participation – Please indicate on the permission slip if you are planning either to be at camp with your son, or if you are able to drive. We will create a driver schedule in June based on the number of boys and adult attendance. Both Moms and Dads are welcome to stay for all or part of the week at the camp as part of the troop 34 program.

Required Gear:

The web site has an excellent checklist on "What to bring to camp". Each scout should have their own sleeping bag, mess kit, and appropriate clothing. The troop provides tents.
